

Quadrant 4 Systems Corporation Announces New Contract With Scranton Gillette Communication

ROLLING MEADOWS, Ill., March 27, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Quadrant 4 Systems Corporation (OTCQB:QFOR) ("Quadrant 4") is pleased to announce a new contract with Scranton Gillette Communication (SGC), a middle market media company ranked by Folio magazine as one of the top 40 fastest growing companies in the magazine industry, to provide B2B digital development and content management services.

Quadrant 4 will help evolve their B2B platform, enabling Gillette to achieve higher efficiencies and enhanced customer satisfaction for their digital publishing platform.

Nandu Thondavadi, CEO of Quadrant 4, stated: "We are happy to announce this contract as it further validates our technological expertise in building digital platforms that utilize Social, Mobile, Analytical, Cloud (SMAC) based systems."

About Quadrant 4 Systems Corporation

About Scranton Gillette Communication

Scranton Gillette Communications is a fourth-generation family-owned business-to-business communications company, named by Folio magazine as one of the 40 fastest-growing companies — and an "All Star" in the magazine industry. SGC remains one of only a handful of family-owned middle-market communications companies within the borders of the United States and has continued to grow its product base by 75% with new launches in 2008 and multiple acquisitions in 2009 — including the SGC Horizon Division's publications dedicated to residential building and remodeling, commercial building and construction equipment.

With our depth of services and marketing expertise, supported by healthy investments in digital products, custom media opportunities and company-owned face-to-face events, SGC and our more than 100 employees continue to deliver award-winning products to our spectrum of audiences in addition to full-service marketing capabilities to our clients.
